

“Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, caring, committed people can change the world; indeed, it is the only thing that ever has.”

- Margaret Mead

The ESA Foundation’s “Scholarship Brochure” series honors those who have provided, or are honored by an endowed scholarship. This series provides a link between the student recipients and this prestigious group – who are committed to positive change for the world.

The ESA Foundation is a 501(c)3 public foundation established in 1970 and recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as an organization exclusively for charitable and educational purposes. It is a non-profit and tax-exempt organization pledged to the development of philanthropic activities of volunteers, providing assistance to established programs that serve human needs. The ESA Foundation envisions a future world community working together to assist those in need, educating those who seek to learn, and assisting those who strive to improve the quality of their lives or the lives of others.

[ESA International is an organization founded in 1929 and is a premier leadership and service organization bringing volunteers together to pursue programs and projects that make a positive difference to the world community. It is dedicated to developing confidence, competence, and career opportunities for the members. ESA promotes education, service, and association through programs focused on personal development and leadership training.]

and Scholastic Ability.
10 pts – Character
20 pts – Leadership
10 pts – Service
30 pts – Financial Need
30 pts – Scholastic Ability

Special Criteria: Student majoring in Nursing – any location.

Alice and Jeanne Wagner established this Endowment in February, 1987. The scholarship was first awarded in July, 1987.

Alice and Jeanne Wagner are mother and daughter, both having been born in Cleveland, Ohio and after moving to Phoenix in 1947 & 1949, they joined the Alpha Sigma Chapter #354 of ESA International. Jeanne became a registered nurse in Cleveland, and served in the US Army for five years.
She is past state president of the Arizona State Council of ESA International and served on the International Council of ESA as a past Philanthropic Chair, and DIANA Chair.

The Wagner’s became members of the ESA Foundation as a result of their affiliation with ESA. Alice served the ESA Foundation as the Arizona State Counselor for several years. Jeanne presented her mother with the ESA Foundation’s most prestigious Dixie Palmer Lady Award in 1984. Alice passed away on March 13, 1990; Jeanne continues to reside in Arizona.

Alice and Jeanne Wagner continued to find ways to honor their mother/daughter relationship by helping others through their philanthropic endeavors. They wanted to honor each other in an everlasting tribute and help nursing students achieve their academic goals.

Members and friends of the Arizona State Council of ESA International

The ESA Foundation Scholarship program began in 1977. Over 100 scholarships are awarded annually to students across the United States and Internationally who meet the criteria of the individual endowment scholarships.

The Scholarship program operates through volunteer services with the exception of the audit performed by Sample & Bailey CPA, PC, Ft. Collins, Colorado.

Applications are reviewed and processed by the State Counselor and a Regional Scholarship Committee, with a final review by the Scholarship Coordinators who submit them for final judging to judges throughout the United States who are selected from education and business professionals, who are not members of the ESA Foundation.
